

BARBQ Bingo

Why not "cook up" a game of B-A-R-B-Q Bingo with these clever cards.

About the Cards

The B-I-N-G-O across the top of each card has been replaced with B-A-R-B-Q and there is a barbeque grill in the center "free space." Also, there is a small hot dog behind one of the numbered squares on each card.

Playing the Game

Using a standard bingo set-up, the caller selects a ball and announces the letter and number - substituting letters. (Tip: Make yourself a cheat sheet like the one below for easy reference.)

Note: Before the game begins, point out to the players that they will need to scan down two columns when a "B" number is called. Also, allow a little extra time when calling a "B" number.

| B | I | N | G | O |

Play straight-line bingo, coverall, or other special games.

Lucky Hot Dog

As mentioned above, each card has a small hot dog behind one of the numbers. There are several ways it can be used:

- The first person to cover the square wins the game.
- The winners get an extra or special prize if their bingo includes the square with the hot dog.
- The square can be an extra "free space."
- Ask all of the players to write their hot dog number (A-22, R-40, etc.) on a piece of paper. Draw a winner at the end of the game.

Don't Say Bingo!

Instead of "Bingo," ask the players to shout "Hot Dog!" or "Barbeque!" when they think they have a winning card. If the players forget and shout "Bingo!" they lose.

For Markers

Use your regular bingo markers or print a sheet of HOT DOG MARKERS. Cut them out along the solid lines and your markers are ready to go. For heavier markers, print on heavyweight paper (110 lb.) or card stock. Alternatively, glue the sheets to a piece of poster board (spray glue works best). For thicker markers that are easier to pick up, glue the sheets to foam board or thick cardboard and then cut them out with a craft knife.
